last night, and the factory will go on to-day.

THE Justices' offices were deserted yesterday, the usual occupants being at the polls.

In Martin's Ferry new structures valued at $11,450 were listed for taxation this year.

THE Steubenville Turnverein will ex-cort to this city on Sunday next, on the steamer Scania.

Over hundred and thirty hands are employed by the La Belle Glass Company, of Bridgeport.

THE Wheeling City Band paraded the streets yesterday afternoon, previous to going out to Walters.

THE Municipal Court will meet this morning at 10 o'clock, pursuant to ad-judgment of Wednesday.

THE Adams Express Company have established an office at St. Clairsville, with John Patterson as agent.

Ten soldiers and citizens of Martin's Ferry met this evening for the purpose of making arrangements for Decoration Day.

CORNER loafers will please bear in mind that there is an abundance of ty, Ohio, on the night of the 17th.

THE COUNCIL—COUNCIL COURT—JUDGE

CRAMER. The following business was transacted in the court yesterday:

The case of the Second National Bank of Parkersburg vs. Morehead & Dent was continued until the next term on motion of defendants, on account of the absence of the witnesses.

In the case of the City vs. Rose Holliday, from the police court, judgment was affirmed.

A rule was awarded against the Sheriff of Wood county not returning subpoena issued to him in the case of the Second National Bank vs. Morehead & Dent.

The case of Donel vs. Hatfield, from the County Court, for damages for selling liquor to D. E. Donel, was put on trial before the following jury: W. M. Dunlap, Robert Pogue, A. R. Kalm, Wm. Curran, John T. Stone, Henry Thompson, Lesse Hazard, Andrew Kirk, Wm. Con-gomery, James Maxwell, Andrew Gillespie, G. J. Hayes. This cause was on trial at the adjournment of court.

The cases of the city vs. Ramsey, same vs. Gebhar, and same vs. Kleary, were continued until the next term.

Adjourned until the usual hour to day.

POLICE COURT—Judge Cramer.

There were three cases before His Honor yesterday morning, viz:

"Coal Oil" Miller, charged with disorderly conduct, was required to pay a fine of $2 and costs.

Scott Trimble (colored) and Peter Chambers were up for drunkenness, and paid $1 and costs each.

PERSONAL POINTS.—Mrs. Franklin Jensen and Miss Jennie Hamilton, of Wheeling, have enlisted Bethany with their presence during the past two weeks.
They returned home a few days ago.

Bethany College.

Col. Jacob Hornbrook reached the city yesterday from Florida, coming via Philadelphia, where his wife remains for the present with her daughter, Mrs. John Kelly. Col. H. spent four months in the land of oranges and flowers, and shows by his appearance that he has enjoyed his trip. We have not seen him looking so vigorous for some time. He expects to spend the summer in some of the high latitudes either of this region or of the West.

President Isaac Patterson, of the St.
Clairsville Narrow Gauge, was in town yesterday. His route is to inspect the business, having carried 300 passengers last week and 270 the week before.
He hopes soon to secure a through passenger and freight schedule from Wheeling, thus holding out additional inducements to travelers and shippers to patronize his line.

Mr. J. T. Hanes, of Martin's Ferry, is a delegate to the Ohio Grand Lodge of K. of P., which convened in Toledo yesterday.

Number five now at Charley Brockman's house over the river. The family carriage will be enlarged by the addition of a new seat.

Joe W. Parker, Esq., formerly of Wheeling, more recently of Huntington, Pa., is now practicing his profession in Philadelphia, his office being at 225 S.
Sixth street.

Chancellor Kempe, Esq., returned yesterday from his wanderings to and fro, up and down in the earth. He entered our sanctuary and enquired after our servant Job. Jacob's experience in the cold water service has been instrumental in developing an acute eye in his system, and while he was endeavoring to convince us that he was well with teeth he was rattling like the dry bones in Esau's vision. Our opinion is that Jacob needed "something warm."

KNIGHTS OF HONOR.—The fourth annual session of the Supreme Lodge of this Order has just closed in New York city.
Col. J. A. Ege, of Greensburg, Pa., who has during the past year occupied the position of Supreme of the Order, was re-elected for the ensuing year.

The Order appears to be growing rapidly, having a membership of about 20,000. It has over 600 subordinate Lodges, and is represented in thirty-one of the States of the Union, and in Grand Lodges in Virginia and North and South Carolina, and he reports the Order to be growing rapidly in the South, as well as in other parts of the Union, gaining its members largely from the most intelligent classes.

A leading feature of the Order, and one which gives it much of its popularity, is that of paying to the widow or other beneficiary of a deceased member a sum of $2,000, which amount is drawn by a payment upon the surviving members.
During the past year, 72 orders have been drawn on the fund for this purpose, known as the Widows and Orphans Benefit Fund, and amounting to $143,000.
The fund has been paid to families of deceased members. Over 300 new Lodges have been instituted during the year.

The Order has but recently obtained a foothold in this city, a lodge, known as Alpha Lodge No. 424, Knights of Honor, having been organized in January last.
The only one at present in the city. Quite a number of Lodges have recently been organized in the State, however.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.—The Cleveland Leader prints a list of Communicaries that have promised to attend the triennial conclave of Masonic Knights Tem-plar, to be held in the Forest City Hotel, 28th day of August next, and the four succeeding days, from which we extract the following: Capt. C. W. Carroll, of West Virginia, and escort, 25; Wm. C.
Commandery, Wheeling, West Virginia; 60; Cyrene Commandery, Wheeling, W.
Va.; 70; Steubenville Commandery, Steubenville, O., 50. The list embraces 106 communicaries, numbering, with their escorts, nearly 7,000 men.

WHEELING GYMNASIUM.—The Secretary of State has issued a certificate of incorporation to the Wheeling Gymnasium, organized for gymnastic purposes, which corporation will be in effect in this city. The sum of $100 has been subscribed to the capital stock, and $10 paid in, with the privilege of increasing the capital to $20,000. The capital is divided into shares of $50 each, and held as follows: T. C. Moffat, J. J. Woods, W. G.
Wilkinson, J. C. Alderton, T. H. Norion, all of Wheeling, one share each.

TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE.—The following transfer of real estate was admitted to record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court, yesterday:

Deed made May 22, 1877, by Edward J. Updegraff and wife to Alexander J.
Updegraff, for the undivided fifth of the west half of lot No. 2, in Shriver's addition to the city of Wheeling; $150.

THE Committee on Buildings and Grounds of the Board of Education have insured the public school buildings in the following companies, at sixty cents on $100 of valuation, to wit: $17,200; Etna, $17,200; Franklin, $17,200; German, $5,400; foreign companies, $7,300; total, $85,000.

THE survivors of the old 15th O. V. I. will hold a reunion at Shelby, Ohio, on Thursday, June 14, Capt. C. W. Carroll, of St. Clairsville, Capt. Jacob Bogert, of Powhatan, and G. W. Chesley, of Hen-driehsburg, are members of the Committee on Invitation.

WEDNESDAY night, at Bellaire, an old man named Harris, from Morristown, Ohio, attempted to drown himself in the river, and was prevented from doing so by some men who had observed him. He was suffering from mental aberration at the time.

THREE Wheeling horses are in the habit of scratching very conspicuously on paper, all a race comes off at St. Clairsville, at which little festivity the scratching is always suddenly knocked out of them.
Just let 'em scratch.—Bellaire Chronicle.

THE New City Club will have a four-card pull, a guide book for Barrett during the race Saturday. The chairman was Ed. Corbarnier, Robert Johnson, George W. Johnson and Tom Trachsel.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION—JUDGE

CRAMER RECEIVES 314 MAJORITY.—Yesterday's election was probably the quietest ever held in the city. There was no excitement, and comparatively little interest was manifested in the result. At the polls but little electioneering was done, and the American voter for once was left to cast his ballot for the man of his choice, without being compelled to run the gauntlet of a dozen or so of paid workers for both candidates. In the Fifth, Sixth and Eighth Wards, however, the Democratic party lines were closely drawn, and the old-time local Democratic Statesmen were forced to accept every Democratic vote the "straight" ticket. In these Wards Judge Kennedy, of course, received majorities. Elsewhere, where there was less electioneering, there was less of a party vote, and Judge Cramer, who has filled the office of Judge of the Municipal Court so ac-ceptably for the past four years, was considerably ahead.

The polls were closed at sunset, and in a few moments thereafter the judges were ready to make their returns to the Mayor. Not one-half of the usual vote was polled, a large majority of the citizens not taking sufficient interest in the election to go to the polls. The total vote polled was 2,622, of which Judge Cramer received 1,403 and Judge Kennedy 1,154.
Judge Cramer's majority, therefore, is 249. We give below the vote of the different wards:
